A photograph of a traditional Greek stone chapel with a dome and a bell tower, set up for a wedding ceremony. The chapel is made of light-colored stone and has a white cross on top of the dome. In front of the chapel, there is a paved area with several white chairs arranged in rows. A white canopy covers the seating area. A small table with a white tablecloth and flowers is set up near the chapel entrance. The background shows a clear blue sky and a body of water.

CEREMONY VENUE

St Eftihis Chapel

This charming and intimate wedding venue has a romantic ambience with the traditional Greek style built chapel. The stone walls and bell tower create the backdrop to the most dreamy wedding in Crete. Hosting up to 50 people you're surrounded by green gardens set for the most picturesque wedding album
