Documentsformarriagefor a fiancéwho has no citizenshipofthe Czech Republic.

To close a marriageyouwillneed:

Birthcertificate

Certificateoflegalcapacity to closethemarriage (thisis a documentissued by a registry orsimilar office based on a permanent residence abroad and containspersonal data, stateof residence, residence, citizenship and intention to marry a citizenofthe Czech Republic). Validity 6 months.

It's not a fiancé's affidavit but a confirmation from a competentauthority!

Judgment on the divorce of a

previous marriage with marked law or death certificate

(ifitisanothermarriageorifthedateofexpiryof a previous marriage is not mentioned in the certificate).

Documentsissuedabroadmustalwaysbeaccompanied by a certifiedauthenticationaccording to internationaltreaties so-calledlegalized (information on the registry office) and subsequentlytranslatedinto Czech by a courtinterpreter (theinterpreter has a roundstampwiththe Czech nationalemblem).

Documentsforcitizensfromsomestatescanbeobtainedthroughtheembassy in the Czech Republic, but itisnecessary to make anappointment in advance and to attachtherelevantcertificates to theissueddocument, ie. legalizeit and possiblyprovidetranslation.

If a foreignnationaldoes not havetheknowledgeofthe Czech language (theknowledgeshallbe proved by a declaration in theprotocol), theinterpreter (seeabove) mustbepresentattheceremony, provided by thebridegroomat his ownexpense. A passport (or a ID cardorsimilardocument) isalsopresented on the registry office in the Czech Republic.

At the Police of the Czech Republic (any Alien Police Department), everyforeigner (exceptformembersofthestateoftheEuropean Union) willissue a Confirmationoftheright to stay in the Czech Republic formarriage. Thisconfirmationisvalidfor 7 days, so itishandled just before the wedding.

Thefeefortheexecutionoftheceremony, ifonefiancedoes not have a permanent residence in the Czech Republic, is 2000, - CZK.

If no fiance has a permanent residence in the Czech Republic, thefeeis 3000, - CZK.

The marrying authority will come to our hotel from city hall for a fee 40,- euro Newlyweds from foreign country has to pay extra fee for paperwork 120,- euro at the city hall.

Necessary for foreign citizens to have translator – usually fee for wedding translator is about 150,- euro.

Theabove-describeddocuments are submitted to the registry office alwaysbeforetheweddingatthespecifieddate

WITHOUT PROVIDING THE DOCUMENTS OF LEGISLATION THE CEREMONY CANNOT BE PERFORMED.

Cancellation policy :

If cancellation is 2 months before the date of arrival, then 30% of the total amount

If cancellation is 1 months before the date of arrival, then 50% of the total amount

If cancellation is 20 days before the date of arrival, then 70% of the total amount

If cancellation from 19 days before the date of arrival till the day of wedding the whole amount will be charged