Ceremony Types

Finding your personal style is a matter of deciding on the type of ceremony that is most suited to you. Weddings in Cyprus are completely legal and recognized internationally. We, at St Raphael Resort offer a range of venues that we believe will fit with your wedding expectations, whether you are having a religious or a civil wedding ceremony.

Civil Ceremony

Refers to a ceremony solemnized as a civil & legal contract without religious protocol. A marriage officer from one of Limassol's many municipalities will come to the resort and conduct the simple marriage ceremony and prompt the exchange of vows at a venue of your choosing. The ceremony itself lasts for approximately 10 minutes and can be followed by a reception at one of the resort's many wedding venues.

Anglican Ceremony

Refers to a religious Christian wedding ceremony administered by a minister of the Anglican Church and is approved to take place at St Barnabas Church in Limassol or selected venues at St Raphael Resort, such as our enchanting Chapel

You don't have to be Anglican to have this kind of ceremony but for one of the wedding couple, you do need to give details to prove you are of the Christian faith.

Please ask our In-house wedding specialist for more information

Catholic Ceremony

Refers to a religious Christian Catholic wedding ceremony administered by a minister of the Catholic Church and can only take place at St Catherine's Church in Limassol. Catholic weddings must be preceded by a civil ceremony, which can take place either in the hotel or at the Town hall

Symbolic Ceremony/Renewal of Vows/Blessings

Refers to a non-legal ceremony that celebrates marriage or civil partnership Any couple may arrange a symbolic ceremony at St Raphael Resort to celebrate any milestone in your lives and does not have to be a wedding or civil partnership.

Renewals of vows are very popular ceremonies, whilst not legally binding.

They offer wedding couples the chance to relive those special wedding moments, reaffirming their commitment to one another.

Indian Weddings

We have experience with Indian weddings arranging the pre ceremony events as well as the Hindu or Sikh Ceremony.

You can choose to have your ceremony at any of our venues – on the beach, in our extensive gardens or even at our enchanting Chapel.

We can arrange a small intimate ceremony or a grand affair with lots of family and friends followed by a lovely reception at any of our al fresco locations.

Please contact our In-house Wedding Specialist to discuss the legal requirements and documentation.

It is ultimately the couple's responsibility to make sure that they have all the correct documentation. All the original documents must be brought with you and either translated into Greek or English. Payment for the ceremony is arranged directly with the designated person and paid in cash before the wedding day.

Wedding Coordinator

Our personal service is the key factor for the success of every event hosted at St Raphael Resort. Our dedicated and professional Wedding Coordinator aims to exceed our guests' expectations; always striving to excel in creative presentation, impeccable service and exceptional food quality.
