- Traditional offerings
- Live ritual music during the ceremony

To celebrate this traditional Mayan Ceremony, it is necessary to have a Chaman or Mayan Minister present in order to unify the couple. The Chaman is chosen in a "Choice of God" meeting with representatives who have knowledge and experience in religious acts.

The ritual consists of various steps: Mutual Acceptance, Purification, Offering and Union and benediction of the couple.

The ceremony is transcendental, where the family and friends participate and share with the couple their unforgettable experience. The advice of the Chaman reflects the incredible energy and creates a magical confirmation of their union in front of the universe. It is unified with the fertility dance.
