The wedding event should take place at least two (2) days prior clients' departure

Clients are responsible for any damage caused by them, or by any third party invited by them, or by chef or DJ, to the villas equipments (furniture, televisions, villas appliances etc)

Clients are responsible for any damage caused by them, or by any third party invited by them to the pools or to the garden surroundings by any fireworks or by any damage to the dishes or to any other objects.

Clients are responsible after the event to promptly remove from the villas all materials such as tables, chairs etc and to redeliver the pools and garden in a reasonably clean and tidy condition so that it can be efficiently prepared for the next guests.

Clients are responsible to re-arrange for all furniture and/or equipment to be at the same position to and/or formation as were upon the check in.

All the extra electric works and/or special fittings/equipment such as speakers or extra lighting, should be installed by qualified professionals and removed by them as well.

The Owners of the property and/or the property' s staff are not to be responsible for any injury, loss, damage, robbery etc whatsoever same might be and caused to the clients and/or their guest and/or hired personnel and/or employees under any circumstances.

Clients are to remain solely responsible for the children whether theirs or guests and their safety and security particularly in high areas, such as but not limited to swimming pools etc.

The clients must accept the property's "booking terms and conditions" and must sign the rental agreement.
