Ceremony Types

Civil Ceremony

This is the most common ceremony performed here in Cyprus. It is conducted in English or Greek by the local town hall and is recognized as a legal marriage in the EU and the UK.

Religious Ceremony

Anglican - The Anglican Church of Cyprus have registered their priests with the local authorities to perform a legal ceremony. This means that they can conduct the Anglican Wedding Ceremony in any venue and also provide the legal marriage certificate. They also do wedding blessings or renewal of vows.

Catholic – The Catholic Church of Cyprus can only conduct weddings in one of their beautiful churches in Paphos and it is necessary to have a civil ceremony at the town hall before the Church service.

Symbolic Ceremony

This type of ceremony is perfect for those that want to celebrate their union in a way that is personal to them. The ceremony can be enhanced with sand blending, hand fasting or dove release.

The ceremony is not a legal marriage and is ideal for the following: -

1. Enhancement to the civil wedding
2. Renewal of vows
3. Wedding Blessing following a civil ceremony outside of Cyprus
4. Same sex ceremony

Banqueting

At the Coral Beach Hotel & Resort we have a number of options to suit all requirements for your wedding dinner. The following pages contain the wedding menus available at The Coral Beach Hotel & Resort.

Gala Dinners

Our Gala Dinner menus offer a choice of 5 courses, which are served to the table by Waiters. The Gala Dinner Menus are available to parties of all sizes and can be mixed and matched, however, we do ask that all guests choose the same dish for each course. For example, you may all choose the Starter from Gala Dinner Menu 1, the Main Course from Gala Dinner Menu 3 and the Dessert from Gala Dinner Menu 2. You may even wish to substitute a starter for a soup or include one as an extra course.

Meze and Buffets

To embrace the theme of marrying in Cyprus, a popular choice is a traditional Cypriot Meze with a variety of local dishes served to your table. You will need to pace yourself or you will never finish it all, as there are many courses served! For parties of 40 people or more we offer a lavish Grill Buffet Menu. Buffet Menus offer a more informal style, with guests helping themselves to as little or as much food as they choose. Buffet Menus offer something for all tastes, due to the large variety of dishes.

This menu is also popular with couples who want to get the party started as it is quicker than a waiter served meal.

Guests staying in the hotel on All-Inclusive basis will receive 15% discount on the wedding dinner menus.

Canapés

Our Ambassador Break menu offers you a choice of canapés which can be served at your drinks reception or later in the evening.

Drinks

Cocktail Reception

After the wedding ceremony, enjoy a cocktail reception in one of our scenic locations to break up the day! You can also arrange for some of our delicious canapes to be served for your guests.
